Police Turn Back Storming Students

About 150 Seen in Protest, Rush City Hall; 12,000 Join in Demand

New York, April 27 (AP)—Mounted police repulsed a hooting band of high school students today as they tried to storm city hall in protest against teachers' pay and curtailed school activities.

The hooting students, about 150 strong, were mostly from Stuyvesant High School in Manhattan. Thousands of others were reported enroute to city hall from scores of other schools in the city.

The demonstration was the third successive day the angry teenagers have besieged city hall in vain attempts to place their grievances before Mayor William O'Dwyer.

Chanting "more pay for our teachers" and "we want Willie," the vanguard of the marchers was dispersed temporarily by police before they could enter city hall park.

Patrolmen, reinforced by mounted police, blocked entrances to the park. At least one mounted cop charged the demonstrators, who retreated, laughing and renewing their chant, "we want Willie."

A police sergeant, heckled by the youngsters, served a placard held aloft by the marchers. The sign demanded "more pay for teachers."

As police halted the milling demonstrators, then slowly drove them back, several boys climbed on passing automobiles and jeered.

An estimated 12,000 students milled about their high schools in Brooklyn and police reported several thousand others were marching to join the city hall demonstrators.

They converged on the city from two directions, via the Brooklyn and Williamsburg bridges.

They are protesting a $250 increase in wages provided for teachers in the new city budget. The teachers had asked $630 and, in retaliation, refused to supervise after-class activities. Their action resulted in the cancellation of spring proms, senior class nights, and athletic events.

Yesterday, about 3,000 students lay siege to the city hall but were prevented from entering the building by hastily summoned police reinforcements.

The screaming youths, many of them girls, bashed in a 30-foot section of railing in City Hall Park, tossed firecrackers and hurled their textbooks into the air. Several were hurt when they were thrown to the ground by the milling throng.

In a radio talk yesterday, Superintendent of Schools William Janssen blamed "subversive groups" for the march on city hall.

Two charges of operating a motor vehicle without a license held against William Leroy Effner, 31, of West Coxsack, were disposed of Wednesday.

The vehicle and traffic law charges were filed by troopers while Effner was serving a 10-day sentence at the county jail for third degree assault. Upon his discharge Wednesday, state police from Lake Katrine took him before Justice of the Peace Percy Bush, who fined him $10 on a charge of operating a motor vehicle without a license.

Trooper Ray Dunn then re-arrested Effner and arraigned him before Justice of the Peace George Brandly of Woodstock on a no license charge. Brandly sentenced Effner, as a second offender, to pay a $30 fine or spend 30 days in jail. Unable to pay the fine, he was committed to jail.

Two high school girls who evaded police run along the sidewalk in the City Hall area of New York, April 26. The students were among the thousands of high school pupils who stormed City Hall Plaza in a demonstration to demand more pay for teachers and protest curtailment of out-of-class activities. The teachers boycotted after-hours work because the new city budget provides a $250 annual raise instead of the requested $630.

Plans, Other Data May Be Seen at Office of Authority

Sealed bids for furnishing labor and materials to make test borings and for other work for the proposed bridge across the Hudson river in the Kingston area will be opened May 17, James P. Loughran, chairman of the New York State Bridge Authority announced today.

Bids will be received by the authority at its office, 22 Ferry street until 2 p. m. on the date of opening, the announcement said.

The work, in addition to the borings, will include "securing samples and other work incidental thereto in and adjacent to the Hudson river on an easterly, westerly line across the river in the vicinity of Mills Point, approximately three miles north of Kingston Point."

Plans, specifications, proposal blanks, form of contract, bond and information for bidders may be seen at the office of the authority in Kingston and copies may be obtained on application to D. B. Steilman, consulting engineer, 117 Liberty street, New York 6, N. Y.

Upon a deposit of $15 which will be refunded if the plans and specifications are returned by bidders in good condition within 20 days after action on bids. Non-bidders will receive back $10 of the deposit.

A certified check on a National Bank, State Bank or Trust Company in the sum of 10 per cent of the amount of the bid, made payable to the authority, must accompany the bid, as a guarantee that the contract will be entered into, if awarded.

A bond in the sum of 100 per cent of the contract price will be required, and the authority said it reserves the right to reject any or all bids.

Budget Is Approved
New York City Board of Estimate today approved the city's highest executive budget in history—$1,246,382,466.36. It included salary increases of $150 and $250 for all elementary and high school teachers and provides for 1,150 additional policemen as well as more sanitation workers and correction officers. Teachers' organizations had asked for a $600 across-the-board salary raise.

Costello Says He Is Not Qualified To Give Testimony

Big-Time Wagering Quiz Brings Statement He May Not Know of Actions

Washington, April 27 (AP)—Frank Costello, a reputed king pin of the gambling world, testified under oath today that he is "not qualified or equipped" to give senators information about big-time wagering in the United States.

"At the present time I'm not qualified," the Italian-born Costello said with a heavy accent. "Why?" asked Senator McClellan (D-Ariz.).

"Maybe I don't know about it," Costello said.

The nattily-dressed Costello appeared voluntarily before a Senate committee subcommittee which is studying a bill designed to ban the movement of gambling information across state lines. McClellan is chairman of the group.

The subcommittee kept Costello and his attorney, George Wolf, waiting in an ante-room for more than an hour while they heard testimony from Police Chief Edward J. Allen, Jr., of Youngstown, O.

Allen told them Costello was nothing more than a "glorified goon."

He commented that "if it weren't for corrupt politicians Costello wouldn't be in the position he is in today."

Allen said he called to testify about his 1948 drive against bookmakers in which he said his force closed down 15 bookie joints. The Youngstown chief differed with previous witnesses in saying he doesn't believe local authorities are "helpless" in fighting organized gambling.

He said he resented such an "implication," but he said federal laws could help.

Drew Wide Attention
The announcement of the Italian-born Costello's appearance drew wide attention because he has been something of a mystery man despite his denials of any underworld influence. He once described himself, as nothing more than a "former bookie who couldn't get a traffic ticket fixed."

But last month Senator Wiley (R-Wis.) described him as "an underworld king" and demanded his citizenship be revoked.

Cameramen and radio men wanted to move in and record Costello's appearance for television and radio audiences. But the city engineer and planning board are asked to report back to the B.P.W. at its May meeting.

B.P.W. Puts Regulations In Category

Excavations and Links With Sewer Lines Are Placed on Deposit Basis

Fines Provided

Violations May Bring Levies Not to Exceed $50

A resolution combining all regulations on excavations and connections with local sewer lines was adopted by the Board of Public Works yesterday.

It provides for a deposit of $20 to cover the cost of repaving excavations and a charge of $15 for first connection on any sewer line.

Mayor Oscar V. Newkirk explained that all rules and regulations governing excavations and connections by plumbers were combined in the one resolution because for the past few weeks "for some unknown reason," unauthorized and unlicensed had been among plumbers.

Several complaints were received recently also that some plumbers were opening excavations without required permits and were evading the charge for connecting on sewers which was formerly $10. This amount was fixed in 1939.

Valid 15 Days Only
The new resolution provides that permits are valid for only 15 days and application for renewal must be made after that time. Permits must be obtained from the plumbing inspector and signs to be placed at excavations from the B.P.W. These must not be removed until the work is finished.

When excavations are made for breaks or obstructions, the regulation is that the first eight feet, are the responsibility of the property holder and from there on the work is taken over by B.P.W.

The excavation deposit may be over or under cost and more will be charged on a basis of $1 a square foot when necessary, and refunds will be made where the cost is less than the deposit.

Copies of the resolution were ordered sent to the plumbing inspector and to licensed master plumbers.

Mayor Newkirk explained that the "eight-foot" regulation is aimed at protecting the property holder in instances where sewer lines are 15 to 20 feet or more under ground.

The resolution provides for fines not to exceed $50 for violations.

A request that the city accept a deed for property which would allow the extension of Florence street from Clifton avenue to Florence street was referred to the city engineer and planning board.

The request was made first to the Common Council at its regular meeting earlier this month and was referred to the B.P.W., corporation counsel, planning board and laws and rules committee of the council. The property is offered by Helen G. Garabrant.

Tito Ready To Pick Man For Greece

Diplomatic Acts Are to Be Resumed Soon, Premier Says in Talk to Parliament

Speaks on Italy

Sees No Basis for Status of Two Nations to Get Worse

Belgrade, Yugoslavia, April 27—Premier Marshal Tito announced today Yugoslavia is ready to resume diplomatic relations with Greece and will nominate a diplomatic envoy within a few days.

The premier made this known in a remarkable state-of-the-nation address to his new parliament in which he expressed hope for better relations not only with Greece but with Italy and Austria.

At one time Yugoslavia was accused in the United Nations of aiding and abetting the Greek Communist rebellion, along with Bulgaria and Albania. Since Tito was expelled from the Moscow-led confederation as a strayer from Leninism, Yugoslavia's relations with Greece bettered.

Now Tito told parliament, "newest developments"—presumably the recent government change—in Greece promised that "from now on there will be possibilities to substantially improve the relations between our two countries."

Regarding Italy, whose claims to Trieste Yugoslavia has bitterly disputed, the premier said that the present unsolved problems between the two countries should not be a reason for worsening of relations. The efforts from both sides for improvement of relations, for economic and other cooperation, contribute to an easier solution of disputed questions.

Nine-Point Program
In his three-hour, 20,000 word speech the newly-elected, Communist-dominated parliament, Tito laid down a nine-point foreign policy program promising friendly cooperation "on equal terms" with the west.

A similar attitude toward Russia and the communist satellites, he said, is now impossible because of their "stubborn, hostile attitude."

Reflecting a more friendly government policy toward neighbors whom previously Yugoslavia has opposed, Tito said his country believes the Italian government is conscious of the enormous profit which both sides would receive from good neighboring relations and close cooperation.

Italian Foreign Minister Carlo Sforza last week said his government hoped to settle the Trieste question by direct negotiations with the Tito government. He said, however, his government would not relinquish its claim to any territory.

Sforza's restatement of Italy's claim met with a flood of condemnation in the Yugoslav Press. The Italian peace treaty provides for the transformation of Trieste, and the surrounding area now occupied by American, British and Yugoslav troops, into a free territory. Yugoslavia had strongly opposed a previous American-British-French proposal to return the territory to Italy, which held it before the war.

Recognizes Annexation
London, April 27 (AP)—Britain announced today she has decided to grant formal recognition to the annexation of Arab Palestine by King Abdullah's Hashemite Jordan. At the same time Britain extended her recognition of the new state of Israel to de jure—or full—status. It has been de facto recognition, or simply recognition of the existence of the new state. Minister of State Kenneth Younger made those announcements to the House of Commons.

There is a chance that an effort may be made to add even more, for the Appropriations Committee has recommended a $203,000,000 increase in the defense budget for the fiscal year beginning July 1 from the $18,911,000,000 recommended last month by the committee to $19,114,000,000.

The extra $350,000,000 was approved after Johnson testified before a subcommittee yesterday.

Division Is Cited
It would be split up this way: $200,000,000 for the air force; $100,000,000 for naval air; $50,000,000 for conversion of warships and for the anti-submarine warfare program.

With Republicans joining Democrats in supporting the increase, their addition to a $29,000,000,000 omnibus appropriation bill perhaps late next week appeared certain.

New Demands Made For Defense Funds

House Economy Drive Is Practically Shelved by Developments

Washington, April 27 (AP)—The tensing international situation brought added force today to demands for new defense funds and extension of the draft law. It all but shelved the House economy drive.

In response to the request of Secretary of Defense Johnson, the House was resigned to vote an extra $350,000,000 for military spending, most of it for airplanes.

And House leaders thought it likely that the members would have to vote on the question of keeping the draft law alive for two years beyond June 24, when it is scheduled to die.

Chairman Cannon (D-Mo.) of the Appropriations Committee announced committee approval of an amendment that would hike the defense budget for the fiscal year beginning July 1 from the $18,911,000,000 recommended last month by the committee to $19,114,000,000.

The extra $350,000,000 was approved after Johnson testified before a subcommittee yesterday.

ability it would come under the P.C.'s jurisdiction. The only alternative to this, the P.S.C. said, would be to cease supplying the Hudson Valley company with gas, thus cutting off its supply entirely.

A decision by Commissioner Spencer B. Liddy, who heard testimony from company officials on the merger proposal, states that the "Hudson Valley territory" is small and is logically a part of the Central Hudson territory.

Liddy's report also notes that the merger will result in a saving of about $7,700 a year in operating expenses through eliminating duplications. Central Hudson already maintains an office in Saugerties for its electric customers.

The P.S.C. official also noted that the prospect of spending about $20,000 to convert natural gas would present "some difficulties" to the smaller company and will be better handled by Central Hudson. The P.S.C. said that the actual merger will not take place until various accounting adjustments are made on the books of both companies.

Costello Says He

Subcommittee Chairman McFarland (D-Ariz.) refused to shift the hearing to a larger room.

The subcommittee has issued subpoenas for two of Costello's acquaintances — Frank Erickson and Joe Adonis.

Adonis is reported to be in Hot Springs, Ark. While Erickson hasn't turned up, he reportedly has been in touch with the subcommittee indirectly.

McFarland told reporters he believed Erickson's appearance would be arranged without any difficulty.

The state of New Jersey, carrying on its own campaign against bookmakers, charged the Western Union Telegraph Co. yesterday with bookmaking and operating a gambling house.

State Deputy Attorney General Nelson Starnier announced the charge after a raiding party had swept down on a Western Union office in Bridgeton and arrested the manager and a woman clerk.

Starnier said the raiders found the office was doing 80 per cent of its business with out-of-state bookmakers.

Could Lose Franchise

He said that if the company is found guilty of the gambling charges it could lose its New Jersey franchise.

On Capitol Hill yesterday, McFarland's committee listened to soft-spoken, mild-mannered James J. Carroll of St. Louis—the well-known "betting commissioner" who fixes the "official" odds on major sports events.

Carroll told the Senators he is ready to bet anyone at any time on anything. But he denied knowledge of any nationwide gambling syndicate tying bookmakers into an organized group.

Instead, Carroll pictured the betting big shots as "independent businessmen" in a highly competitive enterprise controlled only by local interests. He said they have no connection with crime.

Carroll was asked if he opposed the proposed anti-gambling bill.

"It is a matter of complete indifference to me," he said quietly. Carroll said he is a "price-maker" and can operate just as well without a wire service or telephone supplying fast news used in gambling operations. Wire or phone service, he added, is valuable chiefly to "eliminate the anxiety" of the bettor and the bookmaker.

City and state officials have testified that the proposed bill would cut the heart out of book-making operations and make it easier for local officials to control gambling. Carroll said that's not so.

Tomorrow the subcommittee expects to hear testimony from Russell Brophy of Los Angeles and a representative from the Yonkers Daily Times of New York.

Brophy has been identified by police officials as the man controlling the distribution of horse race news to Los Angeles bookmakers. And New York police officials have testified the Daily Times "supplies gambling information."

Brophy and the newspaper both asked for a chance to enter denials.

Carroll said he is a "price-maker" and can operate just as well without a wire service or telephone supplying fast news used in gambling operations.

CHANGING COLBY

The late Bainbridge Colby had two claims to fame. He was associated with two presidents, Theodore Roosevelt and Woodrow Wilson. After Wilson retired from the presidency, he chose Colby, out of all his intimates, as his law partner.

The association did not last long. Wilson was in feeble health and had not practiced law for more than thirty years. Also there was a limited number of cases and clients whom an ex-president could represent with propriety. Not long afterward, therefore, the name of "Wilson and Colby" disappeared from the door and that of Bainbridge Colby was seen alone.

Colby's political career included allegiance to three parties. Beginning as a Republican, he joined Theodore Roosevelt's Progressive party in 1912. When that died, most of its prominent members rejoined the G.O.P. Colby and a few others went over to the Democrats and in the close election of 1916 their support probably turned the scale in Wilson's favor. This won Colby the secretaryship of state four years later, when Wilson dismissed Robert Lansing. Not finding his Democratic affiliation permanently satisfying, he became one of Franklin D. Roosevelt's bitterest opponents. Only Colby's intimates know whether he stayed content with his re-adoption of Republicanism.

STEEL AND THE RUSSIANS

Unless the United States finds new sources of manganese soon, the supply of that material will become critical, says James Boyd, director of the Bureau of Mines. This statement does not come as a startling surprise, since it has been foreseeable for the past two or three years. Most of our manganese has come from Russia. Three or four years ago, when American officials began to distrust the intentions of Russia, American exports to that nation were placed under licensing and sharply curtailed. Naturally Russia retaliated by cutting off most of its exports of manganese to America.

Manganese is essential to the production of steel to meet modern specifications. It is used as a purifier in general steel production, and as the basic hardening agent in manganese steel for tools and similar uses. We could get along without it, by changing our standards for steel quality, but we'd miss it.

Perhaps the metal can be obtained elsewhere. Outside of Russia, the substantial known deposits are in India, Brazil and the Gold Coast, but these do not compare with Russian deposits. Success in maintaining our steel standards without Russian trade depends on developing the other sources beyond their present capacity, or in finding new and rich deposits. Failing this, the day inevitably will come when we must either find a basis for restoring normal commerce with Russia or reduce the use of manganese in our steel industry. If the time comes when only the wealthy can afford a tool which will hold its cutting edge, that situation will be part of the cost of showing the Russians what's what.

RUSSIAN STYLE SPRING FEVER

Reports from Europe indicate the Soviets are flexing their muscles along the eastern front of the cold war. These power moves come at a time when U. S.-Russian relations are at boiling point over the vicious attack on the U. S. Navy patrol plane over the Baltic area.

Nobody can say why the Russians pick this particular time to intensify the cold war. The Senate is considering the $3,366,450,000 foreign aid bill. If it is passed the Russians can claim a good bit of the credit.

Do the Russians think they can scare us into spending money to the point of going broke to contain communism? Or is it possible that the master strategists in the Politburo are off on their timing? Maybe it's just a plain case of spring fever, Russian style.

'These Days'

LETTERS TO THE GREAT — III

Senator Theodore F. Green
 United States Senate
 Washington, D. C.

My Dear Senator:

Perhaps in your Rhode Island environment, you do not meet conspirators. In fact, I never really met any good ones, except Leon Trotsky, until I went to see a revolution back in 1917.

I witnessed the seizure of the largest territorial mass on this earth. I was actually in Petrograd at the time. Now, senator, please do not get me wrong. I was never a Communist, a Bolshevik, or a Marxist—whatever word you want to use. But that revolution altered my outlook on human liberty. It brought me very close to your forebears.

I can say by the way you interrogated Louis Budenz that you have no familiarity with revolutions or revolutionary disciplines. In Rhode Island, there have been no fundamental revolutions since the days of Roger Williams, who believed in human liberty. Since then, the Plantations of Providence have been going their quiet way as an appendix to Massachusetts.

The atmosphere and technique of revolution must therefore be strange, fantastic and unbelievable to you.

Yet, you must recognize that the revolutionary conspiracy which your committee is investigating has been astonishingly successful. In 1917, when it seceded itself in Russia, it blossomed into a vast imperialism. In 1917, there were about 170,000,000 persons under the control of the Russian Czar; today, about 800,000,000 human beings are enslaved to the Soviet Commissars. It is a large increase not only of land, but of territory and resources.

That fact stands. Your protégé, Mr. Owen Lattimore, asks for an investigation of the "Chinese Lobby." I know of nothing that I would welcome more heartily. Why do you not undertake such an investigation?

You might be shocked to discover that large numbers of Americans are devoting themselves to any kind of investigation that will uncover the crimes committed against the Chinese people by our own government to appease Russia. You see, if you investigate the friends of China, what the enemies of China have done must come out, too. It will emphasize what Budenz was trying to tell you.

This letter, it is not what we began to discuss in this letter. It was, I believe, why you and so many fine Americans are confused about the Communist conspiracy. Let me put it this way: All sorts of persons are involved in this conspiracy, some knowingly, some unwittingly. Let us put them into categories:

1. International Communist operatives, including special cells;
2. Communist Party members;
3. Marxists, but not party members;
4. Follow-travelers;
5. Innocents;
6. Doctrinaire believers in two sides to every question.

You were shocked, senator, that Louis Budenz put Owen Lattimore into a Communist cell in the Institute of Pacific Relations; yet, he said that he did not know Lattimore. Had you paid any attention to the trial of the eleven, which you apparently did not, you would have known that Budenz testified in it as the government's chief witness. You would also have known from the Alger Hiss Case, that Communist cells work independently of each other. Hiss, for instance, nearly got into trouble by trying to steal Noel Field from Alger Hiss. She should not have spoken to Hiss or known him.

Conspirators, senator, are not organized to make it easy for the conspirators to be caught. In fact, the conspiracy is often fouled up to avoid detection. It is important then to be clear about what Budenz did say:

1. There was a Communist cell in the Institute of Pacific Relations headed by Frederick Vanderbilt Field and Philip Jaffe;
2. That Owen Lattimore was a member of that cell and that Budenz knew that because he had been officially notified to that effect by Field, Browder and Snyder;
3. He was officially instructed to regard Lattimore as a Communist. This does not mean that Lattimore was a party member; it means that Budenz was instructed to follow Lattimore's lead in such matters as Lattimore dealt with from a party standpoint;
4. He did not know Owen Lattimore personally as he probably did not know thousands of persons concerning whom he had specific instructions as editor of the "New Yorker."

Now, senator, this all leads to the "Amerasia" case. May I suggest, senator, that there is no way of suppressing that case any longer? That call is out of the bag. It will scratch anyone who tries to bag her.

Respectfully yours,

GEORGE E. SOKOLSKY

SKIN TUBERCULOSIS CURED BY CALCIFEROL

I recall a patient at our base hospital suffering with skin tuberculosis (lupus) whom at the time, I was unable to help. This was during World War I. I saw him a few months ago and his skin condition was just the same. I told him about the new treatment for lupus and suggested that he ask his physician about investigating the drug, calciferol, which was helping so many cases.

During the past two years I have been recording cures by calciferol from various parts of the world. I do this because the former treatment for lupus has given such poor results.

In "Archives of Dermatology and Syphilology," Chicago, Drs. H. P. Michelson and J. R. Hascrick report their experience in treating 25 patients with tuberculosis of the skin and other skin disease with calciferol. At first vitamin D in oil was used, and later a solution of calciferol in propylene glycol (alcohol). These research workers state that calciferol is a valuable help in the treatment of skin and muscle (lumpy) tuberculosis. It has exceptional value in the treatment of lupus vulgaris, a very common form of skin tuberculosis although just why it is so helpful in this formerly almost incurable disease is still unknown.

I have written before of the great success in the treatment of lupus and other skin ailments by combining streptomycin with calciferol which brought about a cure in less time than by use of calciferol alone. While there was little or no toxic (poison) symptoms from use of calciferol, calciferol was not used in any patient with arteriosclerosis (hardening of the arteries) or if any damage was present in the kidneys. When the toxic symptom or reaction occurred from use of calciferol, the earliest sign was nausea with anorexia (loss of appetite), and headache. In no case in which the patient was ambulatory (able to be on his feet) was it necessary to stop using calciferol. Of eight bedridden patients, five had reactions severe enough to stop the use of calciferol.

Recipe for Trouble

The Washington Merry-Go-Round

By DREW PEARSON

Washington—Today's column is going to make my name mud with a lot of my good friends. The newspaper publishers of Florida, for one of the most interesting senatorial campaigns in the nation is going on in their state, with 90 per cent of the newspapers bailing hard for one candidate. And when you see all the boys ganging up on one side, I can't resist the good old American custom of seeing what's to be said on the other side.

The Florida election battle is not only a lollipop, but it has all the earmarks of another Dewey-Truman campaign.

On one side, and fighting for his life is a gaunt, weather-beaten Sen. Claude Pepper with 14 years in the Senate at stake, with his chief financial support from labor, and waging an effective, tireless, whistle-stop campaign. On the other side, identical to Truman's, like Truman's, it is aimed at offsetting the solid wall of bad publicity given him by the press.

On the other side is popular, handsome Congressman George Smathers, with four years in Congress, whose chief financial support has come from big-money Republicans who spend their winter in Florida and register as nominal Democrats. No mean campaigner himself, Smathers has made a lot of political hay.

The Dewey-Truman comparison is so striking that it caused the staid New York Times to comment:

"The senatorial challenger is a young and handsome man with a rich, well-trained voice, and a reporter might almost imagine he was back on the victory special listening to a rear-platform speech by Gov. Thomas E. Dewey."

Echoes of Dewey Train
 "The content of the speeches is almost identical. Communism is the main issue.... And like Gov. Dewey, Representative Smathers is seeking election without outlining in any detail the programs and policies he would follow if elected."

Another echo of the Dewey train continues the Times, "It is that reporters traveling with Mr. Smathers complain because he uses the same speech every day and they are finding it hard after five weeks to find a 'new lead' for the next day's papers."

But since few Floridians read the New York Times, most Florida newspaper readers get the impression that Claude Pepper is not only Stalin's closest buddy but that he is already a gone gossamer.

Just to add to his bad press, the Saturday Evening Post, long a forerunner in Republican politics, deftly scheduled a feature story on Pepper's opponent just ten days before the Florida primary.

Probably most of those who read it did not realize that the Saturday Evening Post averages $50,000 worth of advertising from the Du Ponts and affiliated companies every issue and that one branch of the Du Pont family is heavily supporting Smathers.

Slight GOP-DEMO Fight
 Real fact about the Pepper-Smathers fight, however, is that it's a straight, down-the-line Republican-Democratic battle. When you get away from all the dust-throwing, the issues are clear and clean-cut as between the Truman Liberals and the Republican Conservatives. This is probably a healthy thing because ordinarily an election in Florida doesn't mean much beyond a choice of personalities.

Long ago young Smathers began conferring with ex-speaker Joe Martin, leading Republican in the House of Representatives. Long ago, he quietly began accumulating G.O.P. money and G.O.P. support.

And as that support accumulated, Smathers began swinging over to the Republican side of the congressional aisle. When he first came to Congress, Smathers was hailed as the Liberal Sir Galahad of the South. But gradually he began vetting the opposite.

While casting his vote against slum clearance, he simultaneously promoted the real estate lobby's idea of increasing the amount they could borrow from Uncle Sam up to $750,000. Thus Smathers voted to give the poor man low-cost housing, but gave the big real estate operator the right to use three-quarters of a million dollars of the taxpayers' money, 90 per cent guaranteed by Uncle Sam.

Smathers also voted against social security for traveling salesmen and others, against the minimum wage, and perhaps most important of all, for the gutting of bills in the rules committee.

instead of open debate on the floor of the House.

On various occasions Smathers even voted to override Truman's veto of important party policies. Pepper, on the other hand, has voted consistently for Fair Deal projects.

Stalin's Pal
 Most interesting issue in the Florida battle, however, is Smathers' charge that Pepper is the pal of Joe Stalin. He says to quote the Saturday Evening Post—that "by the summer of 1945" he, Smathers, was convinced someone should run against Pepper, that "he couldn't get out of his crew that Pepper became so involved with Henry Wallace."

The real fact, however, is that well after the summer of 1945—on Jan. 16, 1946, to be exact—Smathers wrote a letter to Pepper's secretary referring to "our good friend Henry Wallace."

It was also after the summer of 1945, when he now says he decided Pepper must be defeated, that Smathers actually was writing Pepper a stream of letters asking his aid in getting him out of the muddle, in getting him a job as assistant U. S. attorney, and later in helping him run for Congress.

In other words, Smathers was largely built up by the unusual pecking senior whom he is now trying to defeat.

To read the Saturday Evening Post's glowing account of George Smathers one would think that the U. S. Department was clamoring to hire him and that the Florida public couldn't wait for him to get out of the muddle and run for Congress. But the letters which the young marine corps officer wrote to "Dear Claude" tell a different story.

They show how Smathers wanted to get out of the muddle while the Japanese War was still on, and even asked Pepper to help him get an appointment at Key West so his opponent, Congressman Cannon, would not get credit for it.

Despite this, Smathers now tells Florida voters how, in the fall of 1945, the exact time he was pleading with Stalin, he helped—helped—helped with Pepper's stand on Russia and decided he should be defeated.

It was in the summer of 1945, just after Truman conferred with Stalin at Potsdam that Pepper also conferred with Stalin, later writing an interview widely published in the metropolitan press. Pepper probably regrets that interview more than anything else in his political life. But at the time, many people were visiting Moscow and it was not considered a crime to urge U. S.-U. S. S. R. cooperation.

The payoff is that on April 22, 1946, six months after Pepper's much-touted interview, George Smathers himself said: "We have got to work with Russia and all the nations of the world if we are going to work out a satisfactory peace."

Something Like British System Is Seen in New-Type Press Conferences of President

By DAVID LAWRENCE

Washington, April 27—Something of the formality of the British and Canadian systems of parliamentary interrogation directed to the head of the government has been instituted here in the new-style presidential press conference.

Instead of a crowd of reporters standing with pencils and pads in their hands, trying to crane their necks above one another to hear the words of a President, the conference now is carried on in an auditorium with accommodations for several hundred persons. Each press representative must have credentials authorized by the White House itself. Seats are provided and, as each correspondent rises to ask a question, he gives his name to the stenographers and then the official transcript now will be a complete record of everything that is said.

Under the White House rules prevailing in this and preceding administrations, the stenographic record may be used for reference as soon as the notes are transcribed but not for quotation unless specific excerpts are authorized, as is occasionally the case.

The new press-conference method does credit to the common sense of President Truman, who has observed again and again the uncomfortable way in which the newsmen have been compelled to operate but there was no way that he could accommodate them with seats in his own office. On one occasion he used the East Room of the White House to receive several hundred editors, and he provided seats for them, but the executive mansion today is undergoing repairs. In the meantime, the auditorium on the fourth floor of the old state, which now the building is being used, and when the repairs are finished perhaps the press conference will be held once more inside the White House, in the East Room.

The press-conference idea is an American institution. It is an adaptation of the system of interrogation of the British cabinet are questioned in parliament. While presidents for a long time have been friendly with press correspondents, it was not until 1911 that a press conference was tried in the cabinet room of the White House by the late President William Howard Taft. His predecessor—Theodore Roosevelt—met often with the press on trips and regularly invited two or three correspondents to his private audiences at the White House. "Leaking" information to a few favorites. But not until the administration of Woodrow Wilson in 1913 did the conference of all correspondents come into being. It was interrupted in the years of World War I due to the presence in Washington of many correspondents from nations not at war but favorably inclined toward enemy countries. The custom was resumed during the Harding administration in 1921 and has continued ever since but always with working facilities. Mr. Truman's innovation will be welcomed as a step that further encourages the reading of the head of the government in our republic to meet with the newsmen representing the people and discuss any questions they care to ask.

Transcripts of these conferences have sometimes been published years afterward in book form. The late President Franklin Roosevelt authorized the publication of the stenographic record in book form privately published by commercial publishing houses and the proceeds were devoted to private instead of public purposes.

The theory behind this was that the press conferences were not really part of the official business of the government but were private and personal. It is to be hoped that no such view will prevail in the future. Now that the presidential press conference has attained a new dignity, it is natural to assume that any expense connected with its conduct will be borne by the government and any records will in due time be similarly available to the public, as are letters and correspondence of the White House related to public business. SHOKAN

Shokan, April 27—The spring festival, dance and entertainment of Olive American Legion Post, 1627 will take place Saturday evening, April 29, at the Odd Fellows Hall in Olive Bridge. This social affair, inaugurated by the local veterans in 1948, annually attracts a large crowd to the South Olive community.

The novel blue-print posters advertising the festival were designed and printed by the Shokan High School. A 2000-pound chunk buried itself 11 feet in a wheat field.

Q—How many miles did Franklin D. Roosevelt travel by rail while president?

A—Franklin Roosevelt's journey by rail totaled 243,827 miles during the 12 years and one month in office, a total greater than that of any other president.

Q—Is Palestine as fertile today as it was in Biblical times?

So They Say...

If we accept such guttering panaceas as the belief that we are organization capable of preventing war can now be created, we are preparing a way for our own destruction.

—Columbia University Provost Dr. Grayson Kirk

It is quite likely that there will be some form of cold war—maybe a hot war—in the next generation. There will be a continued clash of ideologies.

—Harold Stassen, president of University of Pennsylvania

I do not know whether the word "conscience" has any meaning these days east of the line which separates free and slave states in Europe, but let us, in God's name, appeal to the conscience of the totalitarianists.

—Federal Security Administrator Oscar Ewing

I'm not going to quit. There is a kick or two left. I think the boys in the union will stick along with me. They know how to hang together.

—Labor Leader Harry Bridges, on his perjury conviction.

This should be our first, our immediate objective. An agreement to co-exist, a covenant to live together if not in amity then at least in peace.

—Brid. Gen. Carlos P. Romulo of the Philippines

Whale of a Story
 Newport Beach, Calif. (AP)—Gilbert Austin, of Alhambra, Calif., was cruising offshore with his sons, Gordon, 12, and Steve, 8, in a borrowed 21-foot cabin cruiser. A whale surfaced nearby, then disappeared. Moments later an underwater blow lifted the craft clear of the water. As it fell back they saw the whale again, disappearing into the surf. The cruiser, an 18-inch hole in its hull, was towed to port

Kingstonian's Son Photographs Atom

Among scientists that recently photographed the atom at Massachusetts Institute of Technology was Jay W. Lathrop, 22, a teacher in physics there, who is the son of a former Kingston woman.

The young scientist's mother, before her marriage to Dr. Frank H. Lathrop of 139 Main street, Orono, Me., was Miss Beatrice Fier and she was employed in the Kingston City Library. She also was a member of the choir of St. James Methodist Church. Her parents Mr. and Mrs. Wallace D. Fier lived at 15 Belvedere street.

Young Lathrop received his master's degree at M.I.T. in 1929, and is studying for his doctorate.

Grange News

Hurley Meeting
At the regular meeting of Hurley Grange, 963, last week Worthey Master Winfred Snyder announced that the first degree will be conferred May 1 and that Charles Rejua, Jr., is to receive it with the class.

Mrs. Winfred Snyder, chairman of service and hospitality announced events for May. There will be a bread baking contest the first Thursday. A rummage sale is to be conducted early in the month. Those with articles may phone 823-42 or 727. On the 18th a librarian from Albany will explain how to start a library and how to conduct one.

A chest X-ray survey will be held at the Hurley school on May 19 and 22. It is for the public and Grangers are asked to do the canvassing for it.

There were visitors present from Clintonville Grange and a program was enjoyed. Grangers present were 30 from Hurley, 24 from Clintonville, five from Paterson and four from Asbury.

Program Honors Barnhart
District Deputy Vernon A. Barnhart was honored at the last meeting of Asbury Grange held Monday, April 24, by a program the subject of which was "The Morals of the Grange." Mrs. Charlotte Smith had charge of staging the program which aptly portrayed the evening's theme.

Mrs. Smith first read an interesting paper concerning the work of the Grange, locally, county-wide and nationally. This was followed by a tableau depicting a farm family at work in the fields. Ralph Westphal then invited with a piano selection, "Moonlight Sonata" by Beethoven and "Over the Waves." Next was a monologue entitled "Advice to Married Men" by Bob Smith. Following in order, came a reading by Mrs. Elizabeth Fier and Mrs. Grace Coffin, both pertaining to important Grange work.

After the above program had been completed Fred Kukuk put on two new games, "The Last Shores," which was won by Fred Meyer, and "Last Word Rhymes," no winner.

The winners of the bread-baking contest were then announced by Mrs. Lillian Competito, chairman of the service and hospitality committee: First, Mrs. Helen Dederick, second, Mrs. Jacobson; third, Mrs. Louise Sailer, fourth, Mrs. Wilhelm, fifth, Mrs. Ann Nieffer. The judges Mrs. Max Lachmann, Mrs. Katherine Keller and Mrs. Mabel Batton, stated they had a difficult time picking the winners as all bread entries were almost perfect.

The lecture closed the program with an outline of how the district deputy grange master received their appointments and spoke about the very fine day farm which Deputy Barnhart runs at Stone Ridge. He also mentioned the following important dates, May 1, open night at Asbury Hall; May 5, dance at the hall; May 8, conferring first and second degrees; May 22, monthly service.

Accord will make his official visit to Lake Katrine Grange at this meeting and will report on the Rochester Freedom meeting on "What's at Stake" and "What Can Be Done." This is an important message and all grange members are urged to hear it. It is also important that the secretary have the names of all persons desiring to go by bus to the visitation meeting to be held at Phileas Grange Hall, Saturday night, May 13. Due to the early dates of the scheduled meetings for May and the visitation meeting of Homowac Grange to Lake Katrine Grange May 15 a program suitable for Mother's Day will be given at this meeting. Articles appearing on this program will be "Mother's Creation," "Just Mom" and a special song, "Mother's Song," by C. F. Lewis, a duet by Mrs. Wainor and Mrs. Stevenson with a chorus, and other numbers suitable for the occasion. A recreation number will follow this program. Refreshments will be served following the meeting.

Chinese Red Radio Blames U. S. Ship

Tokyo April 27 (AP) — The Chinese Communist radio today blamed an American freighter for a midnight collision with a Chinese ship in a Yellow Sea fog. It said 70 Chinese drowned as their vessel sank.

A Peking broadcast heard here said the freighter California Bear of the Pacific Far East Lines ignored maritime laws in ramming the Chinese ship Sian off Taku Bay April 20. The 4,163-ton American ship still is at Taku Bay port of Tientsin where Red authorities have begun an inquiry.

Pacific Far East Lines headquarters in San Francisco denied the Red radio charge that Capt. William Murray of the Bear was negligent and took an unreasonable long time in rendering assistance to a drowning people and even then did it in a most haphazard manner.

A statement by the company said Murray sent word of the accident immediately and was instructed to make intensive and exhaustive rescue efforts which he did for nine hours over an area of 50 square miles.

Says 37 Rescued

The line added that 37 persons were rescued and efforts were abandoned only after the search appeared hopeless.

Assuming that the California Bear must accept full responsibility for ramming and sinking the Sian, the Peking radio reported these two developments.

A maritime commission has been set up by the Tientsin Peoples' Committee to determine responsibility for the collision.

streets during the railroad crossing project, was filed for further study. The streets are not on the officially designated detour route. A request for a light on Pearl street extension and another to replace one at 109 Albany avenue, were referred to the light committee. Requests for other lights in the Sixth Ward and on Boulevard Court, were held over and it was found that none was needed as requested on Fort street. The Forsyth Park concession was awarded to Marie Weidner, 182 North street on a bid of $60 and that for Block to Mrs. Henry Houghtaling 66 Hunter street on a bid of $50. No bids were received for the Hasbrouck Park concession. Contracts will terminate on Labor Day.

Murder of Thoroughbred

15 John Street
Kingston, N. Y.
April 26, 1930

Editor, The Freeman

On page 15 of last evening's Freeman I read an article telling of the murder of a well-known, well-bred thoroughbred mare and her foal owned by Burton Boice of Hurley, N. Y.

I am truly shocked, as are many others, I am sure, that such an accident could take place in a community as well-run and well-organized as Ulster county.

I am somewhat acquainted with the facts of this case and would like to take this opportunity to express to you and your readers the great hope that when the courts of this county are faced with the settling of this case it will be dealt with in such a manner that the citizens of Ulster county will not have to live in fear of such a murder taking place again, under the conditions of this one to which I refer.

Sincerely yours

JEAN WHITE CUTLER

Connecticut GOP

The Republicans against tabling the resolution were Senators Carl P. Remy, of Meriden, Richard A. Forester, of Waterbury, and Garrett Burkitt, Sr. of Ansonia. It was the first breakdown in party lines in the Senate since the special session opened last March 9. Senator Remy told reporters "This doesn't mean that we'll vote for the resolution but we felt that we should not shut off debate."

That No Comment Governor Bowles himself had no comment on the G.O.P. plan, but other Democrats were caustic in their comment.

The GOP program proposed that many of the states existing agencies be grouped into 18 departments, with much of the consolidation delayed until 1931. It reiterated the party's endorsement of such reforms as more home rule for municipalities, a prohibition against dual job-holding by legislators, mandatory redistricting of the State Senate after every federal census annual instead of biennial sessions of the legislature annual instead of biennial budgets, and "a better integrated finance department with centralized purchasing."

Before the Legislature recessed, it received a special message from Governor Bowles urging enactment of a standby state rent control law to become effective if federal controls are lifted.

A rent control bill providing for continuation under state auspices of the regulatory machinery in the present federal law was introduced in the Senate. Leaders said a public hearing would be held next week.

Votes to Keep Tax On Night Clubs, Alleys and Tables

Washington, April 27 (AP)—The House Ways and Means Committee voted today to keep the 20 per cent excise tax on night clubs and also the imposts on coin-operated devices, bowling alleys, billiard and pool tables.

Slowing down its excise trimming process at least temporarily, the committee also voted to continue the 20 per cent tax on club dues, initiation fees and safe deposit box leases.

The committee thus held the line at about $78,000,000 in cuts of excises so far. But when it turns to the levies on travel tickets, freight and long distance telephone and telegraph the total may be boosted above $1,000,000,000.

President Truman has proposed

FLAKORN CORN MUFFIN MIX

DELICIOUS WITH ANY MEAL

For a pleasant change from bread or rolls, serve corn muffins. Easy with Flakorn. Just add an egg and milk. And so delicious. No other corn muffin mix has been able to equal Flakorn quality.

a $655,000,000 limit on excise cuts and unless the committee finds new revenue in other taxes to cover the excise loss the bill may bump into a veto.

While approving continuation of severe excises in today's action, the committee made some exceptions to eliminate items from the imposts.

It proposed dropping the tax on bowling alleys, billiard and pool tables owned and operated by non-profit organizations. The tax is $20 on each alley and billiard and pool table.

Moreover, it voted to exempt the imposts on coin-operated amusement devices. The tax is $10 a year on each coin-operated amusement device and $100 a year on each game machine.

The night club or calaret tax is collected on the total bill of patrons at places where there is dancing or entertainment, such as floor shows.

The committee applied yesterday a reduction from 20 per cent to 10 per cent tax on theatre tickets but it decided to keep the 20 per cent rate on the cabarets.

Do You Remember

by SOPHIE MILLER

In one of the previous articles mention was made of the "Fleet Prison" which was known by various names such as "Fleet Prison in Kingston Harbour." This consisted of several sloops which were anchored in the Roundabout creek "off the Strand." The Council of Safety had appropriated 120 pounds on May 27, 1777 for this purpose. The information is collected from "Olden's History of Kingston," which has been printed in Kingston, by publisher and editor Benjamin Myer Brink, whose son a retired minister, the Rev. Henry W. Brink, now lives out in Walkkill.

The names of the vessels are not all known but the most noted one was the sloop "Camden." This vessel had been a privateer for about a year and was "fitted out by order of the Secret Committee for obstructing the navigation of Hudson river and for protecting the same against the depredations of the enemy. About June 1, 1777, the sloop was taken by the state, dismantled, and sent down the river from Albany to Kingston to form a part of the Fleet Prison.

The following were "directions" for taking care of the political prisoners. "That Captain Henry Benson be warden; that he keep a record of those confined; that the vessels be kept clean and neat; that the victuals be delivered three times a week the names of all such as are not able to provide themselves with provisions; that he permit friends to send them necessities; that no person be permitted to visit them without leave; that no letters or papers pass to or from them without license in writing from a member of the committee; that Captain Charles Giles be the victualler who should serve each prisoner per day three-quarters of a pound of beef, pork or mutton and 1 pound of bread with salt and vinegar; that said rations be served them twice a week in winter and 3 times a week during the other seasons; that he serve fuel plentifully and regularly; that Cornelius Elmdorff be the commissary to furnish the victualler with the necessary supplies. Later two quarts of peas were supplied every two days.

Among those confined were five Quakers brought from Long Island upon a charge of crossing the British lines and attending their yearly meeting where war was denounced. They were continuous in their applications for release, claiming that they denounced war in the abstract independent of a question of the cause of the colonies.

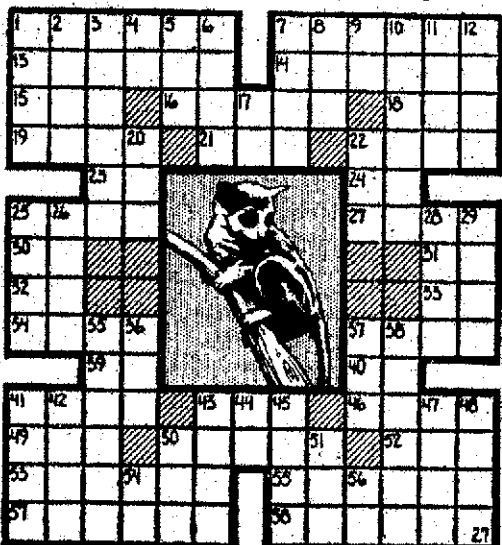

The physician in attendance was Dr. Luke Klewerd and the prisoners were guarded by a company from Colonel Levi Pawling's regiment under command of Captain Frederick Schoonmaker. The vessels had been dismantled but were under the guns of the sloop "Hudson" which was the flagship of the warden, Captain Henry Benson. The anchorage of the fleet was at first near the mouth of the creek, but gradually the vessels were brought farther and farther up stream until they seem to have been near Willet.

The approach of the British after the capture of Fort Clinton and Monticouery on October 6, 1777, necessitated a prompt removal and the prisoners in the Fleet Prison with those in Kingston Jail were removed under

Housing Act Benefits Are Listed by Vets' Office

F. William Sheehan of the local Veterans Administration office, 286 Fair street, states that the Housing Act of 1950, signed by the President, has made available to veterans in this area many new benefits relative to the Loan Guaranty provisions of the G.I. Bill. A list of changes under the provisions of the Loan Guaranty Act are as follows:

1. The amount of V.A.'s guaranty on an eligible veteran's home loan is increased to 60 per cent of the loan, up to a maximum guarantee of $7,500. Previously, the guarantee was 50 per cent, up to $4,000. Thus, under the new law, the 60 per cent ratio will apply on mortgages up to $12,500 with the guarantee remaining at $7,500 for loans over $12,500.

2. Despite the increased guaranty, V.A.'s guaranty payment for credit on the veteran's loan will remain at 4 per cent of the first $4,000 of guarantee used, and so may not exceed $160, as under the old law.

3. Unmarried widows of deceased veterans who died in service, or from service-connected causes after discharge, are made eligible for G.I. Loan benefits to which their husbands would have been entitled.

4. Combination F.I.A.-G.I. loans to veterans, which currently represent about one-third of the volume in veterans loans, will be eliminated after a future date to be announced by Carl R. Gray, Jr., administrator of veterans affairs. These loans are more costly and less advantageous to the borrower than the straight G.I. loan.

5. The maximum period of time over which home loans may be made repayable is extended from 25 years to 30 years, to provide lower monthly payments. For example, a 20-year G.I. loan of $8,000 results in monthly payments of a little over $48, as against $42 for a 25-year loan and $38 for a 30-year loan.

6. Effective 90 days hence, V.A. is authorized to make direct government loans at four per cent interest to eligible veterans in certain areas where four per cent home financing is not available from other sources. Such veterans must meet all the qualifications for a regular G.I. loan, including credit and income requirements. No direct loan may exceed $10,000, and a total of $150,000,000 is made available until July 1, 1951 for this purpose.

7. Homes on which construction is begun subsequent to 60 days from the effective date of the law will not be eligible for sale to veterans with the aid of G.I. loans unless the property meets certain minimum construction requirements as prescribed by V.A. Similar requirements for new construction have been in effect for some time on a voluntary basis, but this is the first authority

Labor May Hold To Anglo Control Until Autumn

London, April 27 (AP)—Britain's Labor government is expected now to cling to its shaky seat at least until fall.

But yesterday's five-vote victory in a test vote in the House of Commons proved the going will not be easy. Continued feckling by Winston Churchill's Conservative allies and the Liberals, will keep Prime Minister Attlee's Laborites under constant pressure.

The Laborites squeaked through votes on two major issues in the House of Commons yesterday with a majority of only five in each case. These two votes—on doubling the tax on gasoline and imposing a 33 1/3 per cent purchase tax on trucks—constituted the most serious challenge Labor has faced since it came to power in 1945. Its only overwhelming majority in Commons has been shown in a recent eight-seat defeat would most certainly have meant that Attlee would resign and Britons would have been asked to elect a new Parliament.

In the event of another election, political observers say, there is little hope that either the Socialist Labor party or the Conservatives would be able to win a sizeable majority unless there is a startling shift in public opinion. The Liberals, with only nine members in the present House—all of whom joined the Tories yesterday in voting against the government—are considered a fading factor.

Despite traditional Labor opposition to coalition government, except in wartime, talk persists of some form of a national coalition cabinet if the political deadlock continues.

Cautionously Churchill said in Parliament Monday: "I do not believe in coalitions that are formed only as the result of party bargaining. It is vain to suppose that anything but a blinding emergency, external or internal, would revive the comradeship of the wartime years or that an artificial arrangement between party leaders would meet our needs."

This was interpreted by the Conservative and Liberal press as a hint that he would consider a coalition agreeable if Britain's critical economic situation, for instance, took a turn for the worse.

'BLACKED OUT'

A man who identified himself as John J. Huber (above), missing witness in a Senate subcommittee hearing in Washington on Communism, telephoned The Associated Press in New York, April 26, that he had "blacked out" in Washington and "came to" at 48th street and Broadway, New York. Reporters and photographers failed to locate him.

granted V.A. to make them mandatory.

8. V.A. is authorized, in certain circumstances, to restore the Loan Guaranty Rights of veterans who used their entitlement to purchase property which later is taken through condemnation, or is destroyed by fire or other natural hazards.

9. The Federal National Mortgage Association, a government agency commonly known as "Fannie Mae," is given $250,000,000 and additional authority for the purchase of G.I. and FHA loans made by private lending agencies. This must be used for current purchases only, and is not subject to earmarking in the form of commitments for future purchases.

10. Provisions are included to make G.I. loans for farm dwellings easier to obtain, and farm loans are granted equality with other home loans with respect to eligibility for purchase by Fannie Mae.

Through last March, just under two million veterans have been granted G.I. loans for home, farm or business purposes. Loans approved totaled 1,818,000 for 1949.

Inherit Uncle's Estate
New York, April 27 (Special).—Augustine Ashdown and Gabrielle Malbert, both of Ulster Park, will share equally in the estate left by their uncle, the late Frederick Favier of New York. It was disclosed here Wednesday when letters of administration were issued for the estate by Surrogate George A. Frankenthaler. The size of the estate is not yet known. Mr. Favier, who lived at 139 West End avenue here, died last April 17, leaving no will. The Ulster

Park residents, his nearest relatives, inherit the estate under New York intestacy laws.

Ivy Division Reunion
The Fourth (Ivy) Division Association will hold its annual reunion, dinner and dance, at the hotel Statler in New York on Saturday evening, May 16. A large assemblage of veterans from both world wars is anticipated. Reservations may be made by writing to the association at 259 West 14th street, New York.

Better Corn Expected
Washington 27—Higher corn production is expected by the U. S. Department of Agriculture. Department experts have produced hybrids which will give 10 bushels to the acre more than those now used. Hybrid corn revolutionized U. S. farming and boosted production to new high levels. Department experts say that still other hybrids are being used in different sections of the country. First attempts to use the early hybrids in the south, for example, were dropped because corn bred in Iowa did not grow well there. Now hybrids adapted to the area are being used.

Delayed Delivery
Mackinaw, Ill. 27—A mail carrier about to start on his roundpicked up an old pouch in the Mackinaw post office. In it he found a postcard mailed by Mrs. Horace Boyd of Roberts, Ill., to Mrs. Henry Parmele of Mackinaw. The carrier delivered it. Distance traveled by the card, 60 miles. Elapsed time, 12 years.

HOME BUREAU

Meeting and Display
Lake Katrine, April 27—The local Home Bureau unit will hold its regular meeting at the home of Mrs. Anton Kurka of Ruby on Wednesday, May 3, at 2 p. m., at which time there will be discussion of the program for Home Demonstration Week.

The annual event is to feature a display at Brink's store from May 1 to 6 of items made in classes by members of the Home Bureau—hooked rugs, refinished furniture, dresses, huck towel bags and other articles. It is hoped that many will visit the display.

DuMond Says Fitzpatrick Remarks Not Based on Facts

Albany, N. Y., April 27 (AP)—Governor Dewey's administration moved today to checkmate a Democratic maneuver to attract rural votes in next fall's statewide election.

Agricultural Commissioner C. Chester DuMond said that remarks the state Democratic chairman made about the New York State Fair were based on "either woeful ignorance or calculated disregard for the truth."

The Democratic chief, Paul E. Fitzpatrick, said Tuesday, in a speech at Dansville, that through "constant prodding" by the Democratic minority in the Legislature "it looks as if we will have a fairly good (state) fair this September."

Meanwhile, there were these developments in the Democratic effort:

1. Fitzpatrick contended that New York voters were "fed up" with Dewey and Republican "screwball economy."

2. Assemblyman James G. Lyons said labor leaders were ready and willing to assist in improving agricultural prices.

3. Dates were set for the first seven of a Democratic series of 17 farmer-labor committee meetings.

DuMond termed Fitzpatrick's remarks "reckless statements and innuendoes" and said they did a "damaging disservice" to the state fair.

The agricultural commissioner called "completely false" Fitzpatrick's claim that the federal government, which used the fair grounds during the war, had returned them in better condition after making extensive repairs.

Calls Job Herculean

DuMond declared: "As a matter of fact, a Herculean job of ground and building rehabilitation had to be done and was done before the fair could be resumed in 1949."

Referring to Fitzpatrick's statement that "we will have a fairly good fair this fall," DuMond said the Democrat was "either completely unaware of, or political prejudice blinds him to the fact that we had a full-scale fair in 1949 that was a record-breaker in attendance, premiums paid, new attractions and exhibitors."

Fitzpatrick renewed his attack on the Dewey administration last night in a speech at Canandaigua. He said:

"I think the voters are getting fed up with the so-called efficiency expert at Albany who somehow spends more than twice as much as his Democratic predecessors."

Fitzpatrick added that he could not understand the philosophy of Dewey who, he said, "hands out $500,000 for a do-nothing commission to whitewash the big milk companies; and then turns around and recommends a reduction of nearly $7,000,000 in state aid to dependent children, and another reduction of over $1,000,000 in state aid for old age assistance."

At New York city, Lyons told a news conference that the Democratic Farmer-Labor committee meetings would be open sessions, or forums for all interested parties.

Lyons, a dairy and poultry farmer of Monticello, said:

"There has been a decline in farm prices, and I hope it is only a tentative decline."

"Past experiences," he added, "have taught us that a decline in farmers' purchasing power directly affects labor."

Lyons is chairman of the Democrats newly organized Farmer-Labor committee.

These sites and dates were announced for the first of the committee meetings:

Kingston, May 1; Glens Falls, May 2; Albion, May 3; Elmira, May 4; Westfield, May 15; Seneca Falls, May 16, and Middletown, May 18.

Sheep and goats increased steadily in Texas for 40 years but have dropped the past few years.

Hobby Show Entries Are Being Received

Entries in the first annual "Hudson Valley Hobby Show," to be staged at the Kingston Municipal Auditorium on June 13, 14, 15, are now being received by the local Y.W.C.A., sponsors of the event.

Mrs. Harold Davis, chairman of the hobby booths, announced today that anyone may enter their hobby in the show simply by phoning 1911, the Y.W.C.A., and giving their name, address, telephone number, hobby to be entered, and approximate space necessary for the exhibit. There will be no charge for non-commercial hobby exhibits.

It was further revealed that the committee in charge of the event desires that all exhibits be "live" exhibits if at all possible—that the particular booth be staffed and the presentation of the hobby activated for more interesting display.

Table and booth space will be provided by the Y.W.C.A. committee, stated Mrs. Davis, and it is the desire of the sponsors that all people planning to exhibit contact the Y.W.C.A. as soon as convenient.

"There are numerous hobbies already entered," said Mrs. Davis, "and because of the wide range of hobbies locally, we ask that those who plan to exhibit sign up early so that they will not be disappointed by lack of space."

A number of commercial booths will also be a feature of the hobby show, according to Miss Justine Rowe, general chairman, who pointed out that the committee plans to present to the public of this area a hobby show on June 13, 14, 15 that will be the largest ever staged in the Hudson Valley and will initiate an annual affair that will adequately display the hobbies of the people of this locality.

Membership Drive For C.C. Starts Here on Monday

The Kingston Chamber of Commerce membership drive will start on Monday, May 1. In making this announcement today Chamber President Robert L. Teetsel stated that most annual memberships become due on May 1, and that all individuals and firms, interested in promoting the general welfare of Kingston and Ulster county are invited to become members.

This year the board of directors, and about 30 additional persons will serve on the membership committee. This is so the job of securing the needed 100 new members will be less burdensome.

The pay-by-mail portion of the campaign will take up the first three weeks of the membership drive. On May 15 the membership committee will meet and plan for the personal solicitations of new members during the week of May 22. Personal contacts with active members will not be made until the week of June 5.

Teetsel stated today that the Chamber of Commerce now has 435 active members. At least 500 are needed to carry on a minimum program. Committee activities can be expanded further if additional financial support is forthcoming. Teetsel said. Memberships are the only source of income of the Chamber of Commerce.

Cancer Fund Box Reported Stolen

Police were asked early today to investigate a "meanest man" theft at the Dallas Hot Weller restaurant, 628 Broadway.

George Andreopolis, proprietor, reported at 3 a. m., that someone had taken from a counter the can used for collections in the current cancer fund campaign. It was taken, he said, between 5 p. m. yesterday and midnight.

Another theft was reported at 8:25 p. m., yesterday by Henry Dreiser, 8 Wynkoop Place, who said his wife's wedding band was taken from a ring box between Monday night and yesterday.

Detectives Clarence Brophy and William Krum were assigned to investigate.

New Demands Made

000,000 cut in so-called non-defense military funds and Johnson wants that restored.

The $350,000,000 agreed on is intended to keep the nation's air force at a level of not less than 48 groups of active and first line warplanes.

To Ask Draft Continuance

Chairman Vinson (D-Ga.) of the Armed Services Committee told newsmen that because of "present world conditions" he will ask the committee next week to approve a two-year extension of the draft law.

No one has been drafted since January 1949, but military leaders want it kept on the books for quick use if necessary. It covers 19 through 26.

Before the Russian Air Force assertedly shot down an unarmed U. S. Naval plane early this month, many members of Congress hoped they could let the draft law die or at least extend it with "strings" that would require additional action before anyone could be inducted.

Secretary Johnson told the House and Senate Appropriations Committees that "the force of events" necessitating a hike in defense funds included:

"The Soviet atomic explosion, the fall of China, the serious situation in southeast Asia, the break in diplomatic relations with Bulgaria and deteriorating relations with other satellite countries, the Soviet assumption of control over the armed forces of Poland, Soviet Naval expansion, the increased Soviet pressures in Germany, the recent attack on a naval aircraft in the Baltic, and the recent Soviet demands relative to Trieste."

Faces Electric Chair

Cambridge, Mass., April 27 (AP)—The former owner of a fashionable country club today faced death in the electric chair for the slaying of his wife whom he once described as a "happy little bird."

Marshall W. Cox, 60, of Concord, was convicted yesterday of first degree murder by a Superior Court jury. Judge Joseph L. Hurley imposed the mandatory death penalty but set no date for execution.

The prosecution introduced testimony that Cox killed his wife by clubbing her on the head and then stabbing her with an icepick as she sat at a piano playing a Mozart sonata in their home two years ago.

Mushroom Strike

plays 210 persons. Reports of the number on strike have varied widely, but the total was estimated to have dropped to between 50 and 75 by yesterday.

The Textile Workers won a collective bargaining election at the canning factory Feb. 14. A union change that the company has refused to negotiate a contract is pending before the National Labor Relations Board.

Protest Over Firing

The strike was called to protest firing of a worker at the plant near Rosendale. However, the company attorney said there was no agreement regarding the dismissed worker, because the Rosendale plant was operated by a separate firm, Knaust Brothers, Inc.

The strike did not actually affect the growing plant, although the same brothers own both firms, Herzberg said.

Altogether, the Knaust brothers operate 17 mushroom growing and processing plants in the Hudson valley. All have continued operating during the strike.

The state mediator said he conferred with union and company officials for several days to arrange the settlement.

Hazell said the company expected to be able to start re-hiring within a week or 10 days. He added:

"It was explained that the mushroom supply is not sufficient for full-time production, but it is expected to improve within the next week or 10 days."

Africa has two snow-capped mountains, Kenya and Ruwenzori, almost squarely on the Equator.

TALL AMBITION—Joni Criss, above, billed as "the world's tallest showgirl," at six-foot five-inches, has announced her intention to run for president of the United States by 1970. A confident 21, Miss Criss said: "I have the basic requirements—beauty, brains and ambition—and I know I'm going to make the grade."

He Demonstrates

Boston, April 27 (AP)—Given a rubber band can be dangerous—in the wrong hands. State Sen. Charles W. Olson was using that argument yesterday to score a point in opposition to legislation which would ban the sale of beanblowers and air rifles in Massachusetts. He said he'd had arguments and other weapons since he was a kid. "How far are we going to go with this thing?" he asked. "Why you can take a rubber band—like I spoke, Olson took a rubber band and stretched it between his fingers. It slipped. The band made a bull's eye on the back of the head of Senate Clerk Irving W. Hayden. Olson apologized to Hayden. Then turning to his colleagues, he said triumphantly: "See what I mean?"

Video Helps and Hurts

Chicago (AP)—Do long sessions at the television set result in lower marks for students? A yes-and-no answer comes from Philip Lewis, assistant principal of South Shore High School. His survey included more than 500 youngsters who watch TV programs an average of 19 hours a week. The grades of juniors dropped 19 per cent and sophomores eight and a half per cent, but the grades of seniors went up. Lewis found that television was helpful in such senior year subjects as history, civics, literature and drama.

Sues Electric Co.

Paterson, N. J., April 27 (AP)—A hunchbacked operator here is suing the electric company. He says the meter-reader left a trap-door open, and he fell to the cellar while waiting on customers. Edward F. Elms seeks $50,000 damages from the Public Service Electric and Gas Company of Paterson.

The predominant age among persons arrested in the U. S. in 1949 was 27.

The complete program for the Kingston All-Grade Orchestra concert tomorrow at 8 p. m., was announced today by Director Lulu May Roberts, who asked persons planning to attend to clip the program from The Freeman and use it at the concert.

Then, police reported, Weber entered the bedroom of his daughter, Ruth, 41. She said she was awakened by the cocking of the rifle and managed to disarm her father.

Lee Barnett Has 'Peter Pan' Part

Lee Barnett, formerly of this city, has the part of Tootles in the play, "Peter Pan," which opened at the Imperial Theatre in New York Monday.

The play, a revival of the fantasy by James M. Barrie, has received excellent reviews in metropolitan newspapers.

William Hawkins, in the New York World-Telegram and Sun, commented that "a very young man known as Lee Barnett makes the role of Tootles one of the most fascinating jobs of unusual enunciation ever heard."

The show stars Jean Arthur and Boris Karloff. The old favorite story was revived after a quarter century by Peter Lawrence and R. L. Stevens. It is staged and directed by John Burrell, with a musical background by Leonard Bernstein.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Barnett, Lee's grandparents, attended the opening night showing in New York.

tee was incredible and "vague to the point of vacuity."

Browder himself when he was on the witness stand, suggested that Browder be called to testify. At his home in Poughkeepsie, N. Y., Browder declared today that he had not suggested Browder as a witness who would confirm his testimony.

Browder's statement added: "I stated specifically he would be a hostile and reluctant witness in the inquiry but that from him might be elicited important information that would, with my testimony, confirm what I said."

Browder, 58, was expelled from the Communist Party in 1948. The party's national committee said he was booted out because he had "deserted Communist duties and responsibilities, and for betraying the principles of Marxism-Leninism and deserting to the side of the class enemy, American capital monopoly."

Discuss Taking Shady

Into Ontario District

Woodstock, April 27 — At a special school meeting held in the

Shady school on Wednesday night the question of the entrance of the

Shady School District into the

Ontario Central School District

was discussed. Alfred Hall of Shady officiated as chairman of the meeting.

After a lengthy discussion,

Reginald Bennett of Chichester, district superintendent of the 4th

Supervisory District, stated that the petition for entrance into the

Ontario Central School District,

which carried 54 names and bears the original date of April 11, will not go into effect for 120 days from that date. John Taylor of Shady suggested that a committee be formed to study the problems of the Ontario, Woodstock and Shady schools. The motion was made by John Hall and seconded by Mrs. Daniel Kline of Shady, and carried.

Serving on the committee for School District 6 will be the following taxpayers: Mrs. B. Hyatt,

Mrs. G. Underhill, Mrs. N. Mc-

Daniel, John Hall, Mrs. Roberta

Payne and A. Stone.

July 26, 1950, was tentatively set for a special meeting at which the committee will report.

The story was about an old ladies' name. At the summer they finally decided to quit their residence and form a radio band.

There was comedy galore as the various old ladies were played by this cast:

Neva Shultis, Louise Van Wag-

onen, Hannah Doek, Helen Mowers, Lela Burton Williams, Cathleen of Mowen, Alma Sunpink,

Rhoda Klippel, Edna DeWitt,

Doris Lepo, Jean Baumgarten,

Marguerite Mallow.

In appreciation of her able direction of the play, Mrs. Charlotte Reynolds was presented with a box of flowers by the Rev.

Harvey L. Todd.

tion will be taken. All are invited.

Central Areas Are Using Overcoats

(By The Associated Press)

It was overcoat weather again today for most of the central part of the country.

There was more snow and more sub-freezing weather over wide areas of the midwest. Temperatures hit below freezing early today over sections of the Dakotas,

Minnesota, Nebraska, Iowa, Wisconsin and in northern Michigan and northern Illinois. Snow fell in many parts of the cold belt.

Chicago got some of the snow that has been showering over the Dakotas, Minnesota and parts of Wisconsin. Heaviest falls were in the southern suburbs with only a trace in some parts of the metropolitan area. The mercury was at the freezing mark.

The cold Canadian air that has chilled the midwest most of the week headed eastward and into parts of the south but temperatures moderated. No immediate relief from the late-April cool wave was in prospect. One of today's lowest readings was 18

Generally fair weather prevailed in the south and southwest while rain fell in the Pacific northwest.

Temperatures were around seasonal levels, with temperatures in the 80's in the Gulf states yesterday.

The floods in the Dakotas and Minnesota which have caused an estimated $50,000,000 damage appeared improved. Some 6,000 have been forced from their homes by the flood waters from scores of rivers and streams.

Flood crests on the Missouri river moved downstream to the Iowa-Nebraska area but no heavy damage was reported. About 500 persons moved from their homes

between Sioux City and Omaha,

N. Y.

Reds to Harness River

San Francisco (AP) Chinese Communists say 240,000 peasants and soldiers have been put to work on a giant project to harness the floods of the Liao river in Manchuria. The Liao drains the western plain of Manchuria, possibly the richest agricultural region in that sprawling area. The river always has been capricious, because of heavy rains on its watershed. A broadcast from Peiping heard here said more than 310 miles of new dikes are being built on the west bank. About 600 miles of old dikes on the main stream and its tributaries are being repaired.

Iran Hot Front Again

Tehran, Iran, April 27 (AP) A pepped up Soviet propaganda offensive has once more made Iran a hot front in the cold war. The "free Azerbaijan radio," operating from inside the Soviet Union, is spearheading the campaign against the neighboring Iranian government. The new broadcast line started about 10 weeks ago and has been mounting steadily in violence even inciting Iranians to revolt. Before that the Soviets, for a long period, had tempered their propaganda against Iran in an apparent attempt to improve relations with their out-rich southern neighbor.

Looking for a fresh-tasting spring dessert easy to eat, lovely to look at? We've got it—a combination of two plentiful dairy foods, cottage cheese and cream, and canned cling peaches, also on the plentiful list.

Cheese Bavarian
(Serves 8)

Two cups cottage cheese, 2 egg yolks, 3/4 cup sugar, 1/2 teaspoon salt, 1/2 cup milk, 1 package strawberry-flavored gelatin, 1 package cherry-flavored gelatin, 1 No. 1 can (12 cups) sliced cling peaches, 1/2 cup lemon juice, 1 tablespoon lemon rind, 2 egg whites, stiffly beaten, 1 cup cream whipped.

Drain cottage cheese to remove excess moisture. Combine egg yolks, sugar, salt and milk; cook over boiling water until mixture thickens. Drain peaches and reserve for garnish. Heat 1/2 cup of the peach juice and dissolve gelatin in it. Add hot milk mixture, stir until blended. Blend in cottage cheese, lemon juice and rind. Fold in egg whites and whipped cream.

Transfer to deep six-inch mold (1 1/2 quart size). Top with rye crumb crust. Chill for at least two hours. When ready to serve dip mold in warm water and turn out on serving plate. Garnish, if desired, with toasted buttered rye wafer triangles, and a bit of cottage cheese. Surround with cling peach slices.

Rye Crumb Crust

One cup crisp wafer crumbs (about 15 wafers), 1/3 cup melted butter, 1/4 teaspoon cinnamon, 1/4 teaspoon nutmeg.

Mix ingredients together. Use with cottage cheese Bavarian.

Tomorrow's Menu

1950 Strike Idleness Less Than in 1949

Working time lost because of strikes in New York state during the first quarter of 1950 was almost 30 per cent less than for the corresponding period of 1949, according to Industrial Commissioner Edward Corsi. A total of 285,400 man-days of idleness was recorded from January 1 through March 31 of this year compared with 396,000 man-days a year ago.

The amount of lost time was especially high in January when 79 strikes idled 19,000 workers for 124,000 man-days. During February 10,000 workers were out with a loss of 78,000 days. In March 82,000 man-days of idleness affected 8,900 workers. At the end of March there were 40 labor-management disputes in effect in the state.

Western Union Is Charged as Aiding Jersey Bookmakers

Bridgeton, N. J., April 27 (AP)—The state prepared to serve bookmaking and gambling house warrants on the Western Union Telegraph Company today as the result of a raid on the firm's office here.

Nelson S. Stumler, deputy attorney general of New Jersey, said Western Union could lose its franchise in the state if convicted.

He said raiding State Troopers yesterday found that 80 per cent of the business handled by the local telegraph office concerned bets sent to out-of-state bookmakers.

He asserted the Western Union Company itself was charged with bookmaking and operating a gambling house and that warrants would be issued for responsible New Jersey officials of the company.

The raiders arrested the manager of the local office and a woman clerk on charges of aiding and abetting bookmaking.

In New York, Western Union officials said they would have no comment until they had studied the situation.

"This sending of bets over Western Union wires is a tremendous bookmaking operation," Stumler said. "It makes the bets that are placed between New York and New Jersey look like a peanut operation."

Bridgeton, a city of 16,000 is about 35 miles south of Philadelphia in the center of southern New Jersey's "vega" table-packing industry.

Cumberland County Judge David L. Horowitz released the office manager, Charles H. Frake, 40, in $5,000 bail on charges of aiding and abetting bookmaking, operating a gambling resort, and carrying on a business in aid of illegal business. He released the clerk, Mrs. Dolores Pattiucci, 26, in $2,500 bail on an aiding and abetting charge.

Stumler said the raiders found 20 per cent of the Bridgeton office's business to be regular telephone matter.

Beef, Pork, Lamb Climb; More Mark-Ups Are Likely

(By The Associated Press)
Retail beef, pork and lamb prices climbed as much as four cents a pound in many marketing centers this week. And wholesale advances indicated more mark-ups were likely by this week-end.

Poultry, price changes were irregular and small, for the most part. Eggs and dairy products held about steady.

Spring beans, asparagus, beets, new cabbage and new potatoes, carrots, radishes and strawberries were in heavier supply and cheaper in most places. Broccoli, cauliflower, golden heart celery, cucumbers, peppers and spinach edged upward.

Flower shipments of California lettuce, expected within a few days, probably will push prices of that staple somewhat lower, produce men said.

Wholesalers attributed the upswing on most meat items to brisk consumer demand rather than to any important change in the supply picture.

Known to Sherman, Agriculture Department marketing specialist in New York, said buying in the past several days was in the heaviest in many weeks. Extension of unseasonably cold weather in many large consuming areas probably was a major factor, he added.

Mid-spring fruit notes: The first Florida watermelons of the year to reach northern big-city markets arrived this week. Prices were seasonably high, though—around 12 to 14 cents a pound at retail.

Strawberries Arrive
North Carolina was sending her first strawberries of the season far northward, too. Unfavorably wet weather in Louisiana and Florida lowered the quality of many berries reaching market this week from earlier sources.

An official of the National Coffee Association told its restaurant and hotel committee this week that restaurants which try to pinch pennies by diluting coffee with water are damaging not only their own business but also will cause the coffee industry harm eventually. Such "shortsighted" methods to stretch coffee supplies have increased considerably since coffee prices rose sharply last winter, the N.C.A. spokesman said.

The coffee industry also frowns on restaurants' charging excessive prices, a roasting firm source told newsmen. He said the cost of coffee to eating places had risen about 30 cents a pound, but that restaurants which increased the menu price of coffee just five cents a cup were hiking the consumers' cost by $2.50 a pound.

Dry Beans Headlined
The Agriculture Department headlined dry beans on its most plentiful foods list for this week. It said the U. S. last summer harvested the biggest crop of dry beans on record—more than 20,000,000 bags of 100 pounds each—and this spring we have almost enough beans on hand to supply usual demand for a whole year.

The D. C. Bradstreet wholesale food price index this week made its sharpest jump since last fall—advancing 10 cents from a week ago to $5.83. The figure, which compared with $5.67 a year ago, represents the total cost at wholesale of a pound each of 31 foods in general use. Sixteen foods were higher this week—only four lower.

Three Display Windows Arranged by Students

Students of retailing class two at Kingston High School prepared three attractive display windows in room 153 this week, featuring jewelry, fishing equipment and formal evening wear.

The jewelry display, procured through the courtesy of the Jewelry Shoppe on Broadway, was arranged by Richard Mundt, Marie La Torre, and Lila Howard. It consisted of scarves, scatter pins, pearls, charm bracelets, earrings and other items.

Cerasaro's sporting goods store on Clinton avenue loaned articles for the fishing display and students working on it were Ronald It's true! CHEER can give you a sweet, clean wash even without rinsing. Because CHEER holds dirt. So, when you wring out the suds—away goes the dirt.

You get the cleanest possible wash any "no rinse" suds can offer!

But if you do rinse, CHEER's your best bet for a cleaner wash than you'll get with any soap—any other type of washing product.

SO GOOD you get a snowy-white wash with NO BLEACHING! NO BLUING!

Without bleaching, without bluing—without help from anything—CHEER washes your white things clean as fresh snow. Your colored things look bright as new paint. Yet for all its power, CHEER is kind to hands, safe for washable colors.

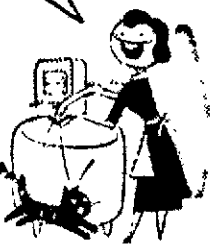

SO GOOD you get a film-free wash

SO GOOD you get a spanking-clean wash
even WHEN HOT WATER RUNS LOW!

The hotter the water, the better the wash. But when the hot water runs low, CHEER won't let you down. Sturdy CHEER suds stand right up and go on fighting dirt and grease. Whatever the temperature, CHEER will give you a cleaner wash than any soap in the world!

Try cheer once...and you'll cheer forever!

Coffee Aids Sick Calves

Atkinson, Neb. (AP)—Brother farmer, you can spare a cup of coffee for a sick calf? Albert Lemmer found it to be literally a life saver. During a recent cold snap Lemmer found two newborn calves almost dead of exposure. He brewed a pot of coffee and fed it to them in a pop bottle. Soon after the first calf got his coffee it could stand up and bawl and I knew that it would make it," Lemmer said. Now the calfman brews a fresh pot of coffee whenever he finds a newborn calf suffering from the effects of the weather.

Margaret De Cicco Becomes Bride Of Donald Weeks

Miss Margaret DeCicco, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James DeCicco, 20 Smith avenue, and Donald Weeks, son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Weeks, 31 Oak street, were married Saturday at St. Mary's Church in a double ring ceremony performed by the Rev. Edward Farrelly and followed by a nuptial Mass.

The church was decorated with white snapdragons. T. Riccobono was organist, and Martin Kelly was the soloist.

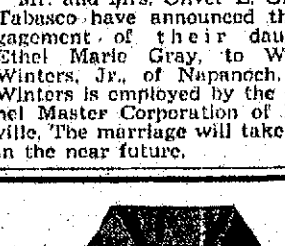

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of white Skinner satin, fashioned in empire style, with a fitted bodice, buttoned down the front, high waistline, calla-curling neckline, long pointed sleeves and a full skirt of unpressed pleats ending in a long train. Her fingertip veil of white illusion was caught to a Grecian calot of satin and seed pearls. She carried a white orchid on a prayer book.

The sister of the bride, Mrs. Anthony Pagliaro, 54 Garden street, was matron of honor, and wore ice blue nylon tulle styled with a fitted bodice, yoke edged with Chantilly lace and a full gathered skirt. Her matching bonnet was trimmed with clusters of flowers on either side. She carried a heart-shaped bouquet of yellow roses.

After a reception for 50 guests at Tommie's Restaurant, 11 High street, the couple left for New York and Pennsylvania. Mrs. Weeks wore a navy blue three piece suit, with navy and white accessories, and a cascade of white orchids. They will live at 68 Prince street.

Windingstad, Branzell Applauded at Concert

Old Windingstad, famous conductor, last night in the high school in Poughkeepsie conducted the Dutchess County Philharmonic Orchestra. The soloist was the world-famous contralto Karin Branzell.

Accompanied by the orchestra, she sang Grieg's two songs The Swan and Last Spring, Wagner's Edda's Warning, from The Ring, and Saint-Saens' Your Voice Brings Out the Feelings of My Heart from Samson and Delilah, and Bizet's Habanera from Carmen.

With graceful poise Karin Branzell drew you to her by her charm. Her pronunciation of Norwegian, German, and French was perfect. A pleasure it was to observe this, for a perfect pronunciation even among fine singers is uncommon. Her voice had flexibility, a wide range, evenness, passion, great power and beauty, but what distinguished it was a dark mellowness, which, as it penetrated into your soul, thrilled you. The audience received her with enthusiastic cheers.

Windingstad conducted Dvorak's New World Symphony, Beethoven's Egmont Overture, and Wagner's Siegfried Idyll.

Though Dvorak grew up in poverty, he lived among the Czechs who, like Germans and Italians, love music as much as eating and drinking. The Czechs have about forty folk dances, among them the polka, the furiant, and the dumka. Dvorak had tenacity and genius, but he was also impulsive and uncritical. He wrote music as easily as Schubert could make even Indian tunes interesting, but he lacked what Voltaire said to Moliere. Clalton one needs to succeed in the arts, "You have the devil in you." This is perhaps why some of his music has fallen into oblivion.

He composed The New World Symphony during his three-year stay in America (1892-95), particularly in Spillville, Iowa. In Iowa

To Play for Dance at White Eagle

Johnny Menko and his broadcasting orchestra from Hartford, Conn., will play Polish and American music on Saturday night, May 6, at White Eagle Hall for the dance sponsored as part of the 58th anniversary celebration of the Sacred Heart of Jesus and Mary Society. Officers of the society promise an elaborate program for the event. They are John Tatarzewski, president; Bernard Bujak, vice president; Walter Tatarzewski, secretary and George Jankowski, chairman of the board of directors.

By the way, there is a 60-mile Dvorak Highway, a kind of honor that an American composer has yet to earn. In this symphony he shows that he is a master of instrumentation, a man glowingly inspired, a lover of romantic color, but also of sentimentality.

Windingstad, however, can make the old seem new, the affected sincere, the sentimental heart-rending. He brilliantly showed that this symphony is romantic in content and classic in form. He sharply brought out the synchopation of the first movement, especially that of the second theme in the Negro idiom. Yet he was eminent in the most beautiful of the four movements, the second, which he conducted with seductive and burning intensity. He then conducted admirably the humorous third movement, like an Indian dance, and the energetic fourth, in sonata form. It was masterly.

In the Egmont Overture, Windingstad movingly revealed Beethoven's profound passions and violent struggles; and in the Siegfried Idyll Wagner's joy in the life of his son Siegfried. The audience applauded vehemently. —H. S. L.

"AT HOME" ADDS NO OBLIGATION

A reader asks: "Does the engraved marriage announcement giving the couple's new address and a date after which they will be at home, call for a wedding present? In other words, does the addition of the address make the announcement more personal?"

The future address of the bride and bridegroom on an announcement does not require a present. It does, however, suggest that a visit or an invitation will be welcomed.

Receiving Line at Church

Dear Mrs. Post: We would like to have a reception line in the church vestibule after our marriage because a majority of the guests are not going to the reception. Who stands in the reception line? Should those who do go to the reception also go down the line? Or, let me put it this way: Is it necessary to have another receiving line at home?

Answer: When the reception at the house is limited to the families and closest friends, it is courteous for the bride and groom to wait in the vestibule of the church to enable their friends who are not going to the reception to give them their good wishes. Those invited to the house go on ahead and wait there to greet the bride and groom.

Courtesy to Kind Friends

Dear Mrs. Post: Is it discourteous not to go home from a party with the same friend who stopped by and drove me to the party? She didn't say anything about my going home with her, and when another friend whom I hadn't seen for ages and wanted to talk to privately, asked to drive me home, I said yes. (Both go my way). The first friend is miffed.

Answer: Unless this friend had explained to you that she could not take you home, you certainly were very discourteous not to at least ask her if she minded your going with someone else.

Serving Cup Cakes

Dear Mrs. Post: When serving cup cakes, is it (1) necessary to provide a fork? (2) Necessary to take off the papers they are baked in?

Answer: Ordinary cup cakes, no. If filled, or covered with cream, then yes. (2) They are usually left on.

Mrs. Post is sorry she cannot answer personal mail. However, her leaflet E-6, "What to Wear at Wedding Receptions," includes what to wear to an afternoon or evening wedding. To obtain a copy, send 2 coins in coin and a stamped self-addressed envelope to her, c/o The Kingston Daily Freeman, P. O. Box 99, Station G, New York 19, N. Y.

Ted Schwamb, a southpaw, or Bert Kuhn, righthander, is expected to get the pitching assignment from Coach Bill Burke in the season's inaugural.

Coach Kins, director of athletics at the school, also announced that his Maroon and White track squad will face Middletown High Saturday at 1:30 p. m. at the uptown ball park.

Garden Park Begins Spring Meeting Today

Camden, N. J., April 27 (AP)—Garden State Park the track that brought thoroughbred racing back to New Jersey nine years ago, opens its 25-day spring meeting today with 10 sprinters matching strides in the six-race headline.

If the weather remains fair, and the man who does the predicting says it will, some 20,000 fans are expected to be on hand when the horses parade to the post at 2 p. m. for the first of the eight races.

Garden State will run until May 30 but for the first time since it began operations there will be no racing on Mondays except May 29.

Mississippi, with 494 has the highest percentage of Negroes of any state in the Union.

The Sacramento is California's only navigable river.

Stewart Field First Opponent for Maroon

Five veterans — all seniors — comprise the first line power for the Kingston High School varsity tennis squad that meets Stewart Field Prep in seasonal opener on Friday at Hutton Park.

George Carpozis, the basketball player and a topflight racketeer, will be in the No. 1 spot for Coach Theron Culver's team.

Four other holdovers are Jay Rider, who will be No. 2 against Stewart Field and the No. 3 player, Walt Smith.

Junior Kitz and Richard Nash, two veterans, are unclassified at the moment but will see plenty of action, especially in doubles play.

Top Soph Prospects

Once past the five holdovers, Coach Culver has a couple of good looking sophomore prospects who will figure in Maroon plans for 1951 and 1952. The newcomers are Frank Smith and Eugene Dranchak.

Bob White is another touted prospect who is counted on, although he has missed several practices after making an early appearance.

Clarence Beeher, a senior who is making a belated bid for varsity honors, probably will be retained for the season.

Coach Culver said the matches have been transferred from Forsyth Park, the traditional home grounds, to Hutton Park because of the poor condition of the uptown court.

The original opener was scheduled against Middletown but reports from the Middle City are that at the moment the Middies have neither a court to play on or a varsity squad to play with. These conditions will be corrected in the near future.

Bowling Roundup

L. Nardi fashioned a 542 series to pace the Rookie League session this week at the Bowlerium. Nardi posted games of 199-168-175 for the top total.

Other noteworthy efforts included D. Riehl with 533; J. Spadefora 216-513; G. Costantini 200-503; and M. Mottsey 214-503.

CHICHELSKY'S CHATTER
(Final edition)—Kingston's junior are, Rudy Holtenberger, is developing rapidly. Plenty of interest among the junior set in the Chris Calle-Charlie Gildersteeve challenge match. Jimmie's Inn is finding the going rough in the Ferraro classic.

Al Carroll, tournament manager for Cecil Rhodes, sweeps in Middletown, informs us that nine Metropolitan Major League teams have entered. First place is worth $700.

Shirley Baker of Schenectady drew a lot of attention with her dynamic style. She is the heat southpaw, legitimate ever to appear in Kingston. The answer to last week's quiz is 59 teams.

Next week we will present our review of the season just closing out. We wish to thank the various tennis fans who contributed material from time to time.

Our sincere thanks also to the Freeman sports department for their allocation of space and cooperation during the season.

JAKE CHICHELSKY.

Peggy Kirk Faces Seasoned Veteran In Bid for Title

Pinhurst, N. C., April 27 (AP)—Mrs. Estelle Lawson Page today stood in the path of Peggy Kirk in the Findlay, Ohio, girl's bid for a second straight Women's North and South Golf Championship.

The Chapel Hill, N. C., housewife, who won this tournament seven times, the last in 1945, was Miss Kirk's opponent in a quarter-final test today. The winner will move into the semi-finals tomorrow against the survivor of a match between Mac Murray, Vermont champion from Rutland, and Bee McWane of Birmingham, Ala.

In the lower bracket, Mrs. Betty Bush of Hammond, Ill., met Pat O'Sullivan of Orange, Conn., and Helen Sigel of Philadelphia, took on Mrs. J. D. Platt, Jr., of Miami.

A year ago when Miss Kirk swept to the title her stiffest competition came from Mrs. Page. The veteran campaigner, national champion in 1937, pushed Miss Kirk to the 18th hole before losing one up semi-final battle.

Mrs. Page's golf this week has been among the best in the tournament as she has hovered around par 74 for the No. 2 course, which has been clipped to 5,915 yards for this 48th annual tournament.

The North Carolinian took on a highly rated newcomer, Claire Dotson of Cleveland, in yesterday's second round, and advanced 4 and 3.

Miss Kirk put out Grace Leucyck, finalist the past two years, and medalist this year and last. The Hartford, Conn., girl, national champion in 1948, lost 4 and 2.

Miss McWane won the first three holes from Pat Harrington of Steubenville, Ohio, going on to turn five up with a 36. The eventual margin was 4 and 3, the same score by which Miss Murray won from Charlotte Decozon of Parsippany, N. J. Miss Murray was four up going out in par 37.

Mrs. Bush was four up with an outgoing 36 to win from Mrs. J. M. Gessier, Philadelphia, 4 and 3.

Mrs. Gessier was runnerup to Mrs. Page five years ago.

The longest match of the tournament saw Pat O'Sullivan win from veteran Mary Agnes Wall of Menominee, Mich., on the 19th hole.

Helen Sigel was three up on Helen Hampton, Chattanooga.

Line Drive Kills Boy

Baton Rouge, La., April 27 (AP)—A line drive hit an 11-year-old boy in the chest during a sandlot baseball game here yesterday and killed him, Police Capt. R. J. Employees of the Borden Company, 300 Foxhall avenue, finished 1949 without a single personal injury accident, helping make the company-wide safety results for the year the best on record, according to Howard Finger, branch manager.

The local unit was one of 160 Borden Plants and branches to report no employee injuries for the year, while 46 had no vehicle accidents, according to the Borden Company's annual safety report. An additional 84 reported neither a personal injury or a vehicle accident.

More than 95 per cent of the Borden Company's 30,000 employees in the United States and Canada completed the year without a single lost-time personal injury accident. The company-wide personal injury rate was 16.36 per million hours worked, a five per cent improvement over the previous record low set in 1948.

Borden drivers, operating a fleet of nearly 10,000 vehicles, scored a 12 per cent improvement over 1948 to set the lowest vehicle accident rate on company records. They averaged 27,060 miles per accident—almost three times the annual distance covered by the
